CELEBRATING MINISTRY OF CALVARY LUTHERAN CHURCH

GO AND... TELL THE STORY

Happy Easter! Our go and theme this month is: “Go and tell the story.” Storytelling has been a part of humanity since the earliest forms of spoken language. We encounter storytelling from the oral traditions of Adam and Eve to the articles, novels, and writings we publish every day. Storytelling is a way by which we learn about the world around us. While we lived in West Virginia, I learned of a new way to do hysterical event, the participants told tall tales, and the “best” liar would win. We were able to go to one contest, and it was so intriguing to hear the stories about folklore of the Appalachian Mountains. Some were traditional stories and others were completely new ones that the liar made up themselves. These stories were very entertaining and completely untrue (no matter what the liar told you!)

We tell stories every day. Yes, sometimes stories that are tall tales, but often stories that speak truth about ourselves or the people in our lives. Some stories we hear are for entertainment. Other stories inform. Stories surround us everywhere we go. This month we are challenged to Go And tell the story. And what is the greatest story we can share with the world? The story of God, of course!

So the question for you is how do you go and tell the story of God?

We hear the story of God every Sunday in church and read it in the Bible. As Lutherans, we sometimes shy away from sharing God’s story, especially in public! Sometimes we assume that people already know the story, which many do, but this is not always the case.

So how do we go about sharing God’s story? We can share the stories of the Bible, and we can share the story of our faith. And we can share how God’s story has been a part of your life story. We have just celebrated Easter, and we continue in the Easter season and story for the next month and a half. We will hear the stories of Jesus after the resurrection and what he did to convince the non-believers that he truly rose from the grave. So go and let us do the same, go out, go share, go proclaim, and go tell the story. Share your faith! Amen!

- Peace, Pastor Hillary

Questions to Consider:

What is one of your favorite Bible stories?

- Is there a prop or tangible item you might use to help you tell the story?

How will you GO and tell the story?

Prayer: Master Storyteller, your stories seem almost unbelievable. Open us to recognize your patience, deep love, and grace. Help me be a storyteller. Amen.

Suggested Song: I Love to Tell the Story (ELW 661)

To the members of Calvary Lutheran Church

From the

NEBRASKA SYNOD

Of the ELCA in grateful appreciation for giving

$18,975.00

For Mission Support beyond the congregation for synod and churchwide ministries of the ELCA

Once again we have Ben Carlson to thank for tis month's recPerfect Bread Pudding. Ben wrote that this was always a special treat, as my Mom would use up the homemade bread that her Mom would bake, before it would get old Grandma would pour milk (or cream) over it Since many of you may have left over Easter or sweet rolls, this may be a perfect way to use them.

Perfect Bread Pudding

2 ¼ cup milk
2 slightly beaten eggs
2 cups 1 inch day old bread cubes
½ cup brown sugar
½ teaspoon cinnamon
1 teaspoon vanilla extract
¼ teaspoon salt
½ cup seedless raisins (optional)

Combine milk and eggs. Pour over bread cubes. Stir in remaining ingredients

Pour mixture in an 8-inch round baking dish.

Place baking dish in shallow pan on oven rack; pour hot water around baking dish to 1 inch deep.

Bake at 350 degrees about 45 minutes or until knife inserted halfway between center and outside comes out clean.

2024 CHRISM MASS

Chrism(krizəm), also known as myrrh or myron, is the fragrant oils used during baptisms and other anointings. Tradition holds that ministers gathered annually in worship and fellowship during a service at which the Bishop preaches, presides, and consecrates the chrism. During this service, the gathered ministers of all varieties renew their commitment to their care and leadership in the church. This includes Ministers of Word and Sacrament (Pastors), Ministers of Word and Service (Deacons), Parish Ministry Associates (PMAs), and ever the Synod's Bishop. Joining them in support and encouragement are often parishioners of the hosting congregations, who also prepare a meal for the ministerial leaders following the mass. Throughout the history of the Nebraska Synod, the Chrism Mass has been held in as many as nine or more locations spread across the territory in a single year. Yet in the years since the Covid-19 pandemic, in-person worship and fellowship for this tradition had been suspended.

This year Bishop Scott Alan Johnson and his team at the Synod Office were able to coordinate with local congregations around the synod to host a total of six Chrism Masses during the Season of Lent. Gatherings in Oshkosh (St. Mark's) and Lexington (Grace) happened the first week of March. During the next week, worship and fellowship happened in Gretna (Resurrection) and Pierce (Christ). Finally, during the week leading up to Holy Week, there was a gathering in Adams (American) and Stromsburg (Salem).

Pastors Hillary and Evan served as the host pastors for this final Chrism Mass at Salem Lutheran Church while they are without a called pastor. They were joined by Pastor James Anderson, who is an experienced pastor but new to the Nebraska Synod and has been serving as a supply minister Salem in recent months. About two dozen ministry leaders of all sorts gathered to renew their commitment to Christ's church, receive newly consecrated chrism, and share in wonderful fellowship.

Providing supportive ministry (both spiritually and practically) and encouragement such as this is just one of the ways Bishop Scott and the Synod Office lead and care for the Nebraska Synod, and Pastors Hillary and Evan, as well as so many, give thanks for their leadership.

Meet the Member - Ethan Fjell

I grew up on a farm North of Stromsburg with my parents Jen and Ryan Fjell. I have an older sister, Elise, and an older brother Carter, along with a younger brother Eli.

I go to school at Shelby-Rising City in Shelby and I will graduate this May. I plan to attend Northeast Community Collage in Norfolk and get an Electrical Construction degree.

My family and I have spent Thanksgiving in Colorado at Keystone for several years. This year, following the wrestling season, we went to Mexico. My favorite interests are participating in sports and my woodworking projects. I have participated in football, wrestling, and golf during high school. I also was involved with the set crew for the One-act play at school. It was quite a season, ending at the state competition. I was able help build the set used for the play.

For fun I like to spend time with my friends. My favorite way to relax is to watch TV and take naps

I am really passionate about the gun cabinet that I am making as my woods project at school. I also like to sit in the tractor working the fields.

Swede Home means a lot to me. I enjoy visiting with people I don't get to see every day and catch up with them. I really like all the nice people that are part of the church, because even though I don't know them really well they treat me like a good friend and always have a smile for me.

It is safe to say that Swede Home feels the same about you, Ethan. Your smile always makes us happy. We are so glad to have you and your family in our faith family.
